

GATEWAY LAW CORPORATION WELCOMES NEW DIRECTOR AND HEAD OF MEDIA & ENTERTAINMENT PRACTICE GROUP

Michael Leow recently came on board as a Director at Gateway Law Corporation in November 2010, and will spearhead the development of the Media and Entertainment law practice. Having advised major film studios, financiers, banks, independent producers, and multimedia companies from all over the world, Michael is no stranger to the entertainment industry.

Notably, he has also been involved in advising on the financing for multi-million dollar films by eminent directors such as John Woo and Zhang Yimou, and advising Hollywood majors on agreements relating to their award-winning animated features including "Shrek", "Shrek 2" and "Garfield", among other large-scale projects in Hong Kong, China, Southeast Asia, Europe and the USA. As such, Michael has developed close relationships with the major players in the entertainment industry in Asia and abroad, and has successfully established himself as one of the leading entertainment lawyers in the Asia Pacific region.

At Gateway Law Corporation, Michael will head and develop its Media and Entertainment law practice. In particular, Michael will focus on advising clients on various film and TV related issues including financing, development, production, international and pan-Asian co-productions, remake rights, sales agencies, distribution, and talent management. On the business side, Michael was a co-producer on a Taiwanese film, "Au Revoir Taipei" directed by Arvin Chen, which premiered at the Berlin International Film Festival 2010.

Gateway Law Corporation is excited to welcome this creative and experienced individual. For more information about Michael, please click here.
